

Didi Fenwick

From: East Anglian Game & Country Fair [info@ukgamefair.co.uk]
Sent: 03 February 2010 13:03
To: info@ukgamefair.co.uk
Subject: January Newsletter - Preview

January 2010 NEWSLETTER

Dear Oliver

Happy New Year! Welcome to our second e-newsletter, highlighting some great features and offers to get excited about for this year's show. Master Chef Steve Thorpe shares his 'perfect game' recipe with us and if you would like to contribute to any of our monthly newsletters leading up to the show in April, please get in touch!

Enjoy!

FEATURE

The Horse Whisperer Returns

We are delighted to announce that the extremely popular equine attraction Gary Witheford 'The Horse Whisperer' will be returning to the East Anglian Game & Country Fair in 2010.

At the 2009 Show Gary spent lots of time talking with visitors to the show as well as working with horse owners who brought their 'problem' horses to the show to be worked on by him. Star of the Show was, in fact, NOT Gary but Kate, the little girl with

IN THIS ISSUE

NEW FOR 2010 - Carrilon will be at the East Anglian Game & Country Fair.

See, feel and have a go, with all the latest Trout & Salmon fishing tackle and outdoor clothing. And whilst you're there, why not have a go at the UK Fly Casting Championship. The fun way to test your skills! Qualifying days will be held at 5 Country Fairs in 2010 one of which is the East Anglian Game & Country Fair. Only £3 to enter and you could WIN a great prize. Click Here for more info.

Enjoy The VIP Treatment!

The Members' area provides the perfect relaxed environment to entertain your friends, family & corporate guests whilst her 'naughty' pony, Tina! She was the lucky winner of our 'win a free clinic session 2009' competition and won the chance to bring her pony to the show for Gary to work with her. Tina was generally difficult to handle and tended to bite and demand treats in order to let Kate catch her, Gary spent time teaching Kate and her mother techniques to help with these issues.

Gary and his team from Westcourt Stables will be holding demonstrations with Gary's Andalucian stallion and a young horse to be broken in at the show. His work over the two days will provide the opportunity for 6 horses displaying behavioural problems to come and see him at the show to be worked on.

supporting this popular, local event.
Membership Includes:

- Free Prioritised admission to the show
- VIP Car Parking
- Access to Members' Bar & Restaurant
- Entry to the exclusive Members' Lawn enclosure & Marquee overlooking the main arena.
- Not to mention the Luxury Loos!

(Prices from £20 per adult)

Book Online Here.

TOP TIPS FROM THE SHOW'S EXPERTS

Ed Masters 'The Barn Man' Shares his barn living tips.

Barnmasters are kindly sponsoring the forestry competition trophies at this year's show visit www.barnmasters.co.uk to find out more information and advice.

COMPETITIONS

Win a 'Super Weekend Camping Break'

Win a 'Super Weekend Camping Break' at this year's show!

The Prize Includes: Admission to the show both days for up to 4 people including 3 nights camping! Just bring your Caravan, Camper or Tent and enjoy a fantastic weekend away with your friends and family! Well behaved pets are most welcome too.

Click Here to Enter.

Win a Free 'Clinic session' for your horse with Gary Witheford, at the 2010 East Anglian Game & Country Fair.

Enter our competition to be in with a chance of winning the opportunity to bring your horse to the show to be worked on by Gary. Click here to read more.

RECIPES FROM THE SHOW'S TOP CHEFS

A Perfect Game Recipe from Master Chef Steve Thorpe.

This month Master Chef Steve Thorpe, Head of The Hotel School - City College, Norwich who will be demonstrating at next year's 'East Anglian Game & Country Fair' in the Cookery Theatre, tells us how to create a delicious meal of Roast Norfolk pheasant with fondant potato, cream leeks and wild mushroom jus. Click here for recipe.

→ FORWARD

Share our newsletter with your family and friends!

Forward to a Friend

UNSUBSCRIBE

Unsubscribe from our monthly newsletter

